

Dear SEDAR Subscriber,

Further to the notice of Thursday, September 12, 2013 advising of the transition of the operation of SEDAR and the SEDAR website from our current service provider (CDS INC.) to our new service provider (the "Transition"), we write to advise that the Transition has been rescheduled from October 12, 2013 to December 2, 2013.

The Transition will take place over the weekend, starting on Saturday, November 30, 2013 with the systems back online and accessible starting on Monday, December 2, 2013.

Accordingly, the assignment of the rights and obligations of CDS INC. in certain SEDAR forms, as detailed in our earlier notice, will now be delayed until November 30, 2013. In addition, the incorporation of certain consequential amendments and other modifications to those forms, as described in our earlier notice, will also be delayed until November 30, 2013. Please refer to our earlier notice for a description of the changes.

Please note that you do not need to complete and submit new forms if you are a current SEDAR subscriber.

Should you have any questions, please contact the CSA IT Systems Office at the following email address: sedar@csa-acvm.ca.

Yours very truly,

Sherri Brand
Managing Director
CDS INC.

Yours very truly,

Ian Campbell
Chief Information Officer, CSA IT Systems Office
on behalf of the Alberta Securities Commission