Summary of Code Update Changes

1. Oil and Gas

Effective December 30, 2010, amendments to National Instrument 51-101 Standards of Disclosure for Oil and Gas Activities (NI 51-101) and its related forms (the Forms) and companion policy (51-101CP) (collectively, the Instrument) will come into force. As a result, SEDAR has been updated to reflect the new filing subtypes and documents therein. The subtypes and a brief description of the documents within each subtype are indicated below.

- Filing Subtype: Oil and Gas Annual Disclosure Filing
An issuer may collectively publish Forms 51-101F1, F2 & F3 as one document or as separate individual documents. In addition, Form 51-101F4 is a new document that is required to be filed as part of the annual oil and gas disclosure filings.
- Filing Subtype: Revised Oil and Gas Annual Disclosure Filing
This subtype should be used to file revisions to the annual oil and gas disclosures.
- Filing Subtype: Oil and Gas Interim Filing
An issuer may file NI 51-101 information for a period other than the annual period. This information is considered voluntary, and should be filed under the Oil and Gas Interim Filing subtype.
- Filing Subtype: Summary Report
This subtype should be used to identify supplemental information associated with an issuer's oil and gas disclosure activities.

2. Point of Sale "Fund Facts"

On January 1, 2011, rule amendments will come into force requiring mutual fund companies to produce a new disclosure document called "Fund Facts". Mutual fund companies will be required to file a Fund Facts document for each class or series for each of their mutual funds. The related SEDAR changes are described below.

SEDAR Changes

SEDAR has been updated to include a Fund Facts document within the newly named "Simplified Prospectus, Annual Information Form and Fund Facts (NI 81-101)" filing type for use by a mutual fund or mutual fund family.

The Fund Facts document type has been added to the following subtypes and will generally have "private" access:

- Preliminary
- Pro Forma
- Combined Preliminary and Pro Forma
- Final
- Amendment to Final

The “Initial Fund Facts” filing type has been created for filings of stand-alone Fund Facts documents (i.e. Fund Facts not accompanying preliminary or pro forma prospectus filing). The “Initial Fund Facts” will have automatic “public” access and is intended for use during the transition period ending July 8, 2011.

Use of New Filing and Document Types

Prior to April 8, 2011, a mutual fund may voluntarily choose to file a Fund Facts for each class or series of the mutual fund. If this happens concurrently with the mutual fund’s filing of its final simplified prospectus and annual information form, the Fund Facts should be filed along with the final materials using the Initial Fund Facts document type under the Final subtype. The Fund Facts will have automatic “public” access.

On or after April 8, 2011, every preliminary and pro forma prospectus filed by a mutual fund must include a Fund Facts document. Accordingly, a Fund Facts document must be filed under the appropriate subtype according to the type of prospectus that is being filed. For example, a Fund Facts document accompanying a final prospectus should be filed using the Final Fund Facts document type. The Final Fund Facts will have “private” access and will be made “public” by securities regulatory authorities upon completion of the prospectus review.

No later than July 8, 2011, every class or series of a mutual fund must file a Fund Facts document. The “Initial Fund Facts” filing type should be used by mutual funds that do not file a preliminary or pro forma prospectus on or after April 8, 2011 but before July 8, 2011.

After July 8, 2011, a mutual fund should revert to using the appropriate document types noted above.
